Bruce Peter Oberg, 80, of Rockford, IL passed away on April 24, 2024. Born on December 26, 1943, in Chicago, IL, the son of Carl and Mary (Tierney) Oberg. Bruce's life was a tapestry of love, woven with threads of family and friendship. A graduate of the West Rockford High School Class of 1961, he married his beloved wife Rae Anne Oberg on December 4, 1989, creating a beautiful union that lasted until her passing. Bruce was a man of many talents, with a creative flair that was evident in the beautiful pieces he crafted as a self-employed carpenter. Bruce was a man who held a deep appreciation for the simple joys in life. He was an ardent hunter and fisher, often found in the tranquil woods or by a serene lake, embracing nature's bounty. He had a thirst for life that led him to spend some time living in Fairbanks, Alaska.

Bruce is survived by his stepdaughter, Robin (Steve) Schroeder; his grandchildren, Daniel (Sarah) Schroeder and Sara (Luke) Langholf; his great-grandchildren, Raven Schroeder and Carson Langholf along with numerous nieces and nephews. Bruce was preceded in death by his father, Carl Oberg, his mother, Mary Tierney, his wife, Rae Anne Oberg, his son, Andrew Oberg, his brother, John Oberg, and his sister, Cheryl Peters.

As we remember Bruce, we invite you to share your memories of him and upload photos to his memorial page. Each memory shared helps keep his spirit alive and allows us to celebrate the life of a man who was not just a talented carpenter, but an extraordinary human being. Bruce's story is not just in the past, it lives on in each of us, in every life he touched, in every heart he warmed. McCorkle Funeral Home – Rockton Chapel assisted the family.
