Judith Anne Lundeen Geissler, 76, of Belvidere, died peacefully July 31, 2020 in her home. Born October 7, 1943 in Oak Park, IL, the daughter of Eugene P. and Mary Elizabeth (Wright) Lundeen, Jr. She graduated with a degree in Journalism from the University of Illinois, where she met Burkhard Geissler. The two were married in Rockford on April 9, 1966. She then entered Graduate School in Advertising at the University of Iowa, working as a Research Assistant, copywriter and continuity chief in radio and later served as development director for not-for-profit agencies in Rockford. Judy had a large circle of friends and was involved in many social and service organizations.

She is survived by “Burk,” her husband of 55 years; son, Karl P. (Dorie) Geissler; and grandchildren, Alex, Jake, Kyra, Mia, Aaron, and C.J.; aunt, Hettie Wright; cousins, James (Susan) Wright, Mary (Nathan) Rantala, and their children all of Charlotte, NC. She was predeceased by her parents and sons, Eric and Marc.

A private family service was held, with burial in Scandinavian Cemetery. Memorials may be made in Judy’s name to the Mayo Clinic - Cancer Research, Department of Development, 200 First St. SW, Rochester, MN 55905 or the Belvidere Panhellenic Society, 11811 Pony Lane, Belvidere, IL 61008.
